Border Crossing at Malawi and Mozambique

Submitted by kdad on July 31, 2014

To address barriers to trade that contribute to food insecurity, the USAID Southern Africa Trade Hub (SATH) rolled out an integrated border management program to improve coordination at border posts between Malawi, Zambia, Mozambique and Tanzania. While action plans are forthcoming in FY2012, the program did conduct border operations assessments and stakeholder meetings last year. Photo by Gina van Schalkwyk, USAID/SATH
